Large List Of Cash Awards Is Ready For Fair

Money Already Set Aside For This Purpose

A total of $1,450 has been earmarked for cash awards in the livestock division of the Marshall County Agricultural Fair to be held here August 9 to 11, it was reported at a meeting of the board Monday night.

The finance committee reported that 77 members had been signed up which leaves 123 to go if the quota of 299 is to be reached this year; membership in the association costs only $10 and entitles the holder to a lifetime proceedings.

Cur Phillips and Jim Kinney, forming a committee to secure carnival entertainment to accompany the fair reported that prospects were good for a good, clean carnival and that no other kind would be considered.

The finance committee also reported that 75 ads have been sold in the fair catalogue and that 14 or 15 booths for displays had already been sold.

The community building was reported as ready for the fair with the exception of the wiring, installing windows and plumbing.

The Benton Junior Woman's Club has volunteered to have the glass installed and the Senior Woman's Club will have the wiring done. The park board will have the plumbing installed in time for the fair, they reported.

The Marshall County Veterans of Foreign Wars and some others volunteered and have already furnished more than $500 worth of labor to pour the concrete floor; Mathis & Dowdy are hauling of sand, gravel and gas. Those were the only donation credits listed by the fair board but it was stated other may have been.

Answering a letter: The Bible contains 773,746 words. We can go still further with that; it contains 3,566,480 letters, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters, the word "Lord" is used 1,855 times and the word "Reverend" is used only once. The 21st verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet, except the letter J. The word "and" is pretty useful, it appears in the Bible 46,277 times.

The largest terrapin we ever saw was brought in to this office Saturday by Cecil Treas of Brewers. Said he found it near Calvert City at Kentucky Lake. It measured 11 inches by 9 inches across the back and had 38 black spots on the belly side which many people claim indicates the age, one spot per year—that would make him 38 years old. Anyway, he was some terrapin.

Savings Accounts Grow In Woods

One of the world's best savings accounts grow in a farm woods. It has many advantages over the commercial kind.

Here's why:

It can be started for a few dollars and invested in the original investment already there and waiting for a farmer to develop this type of a bank account by protecting his woods from live-stock grazing.

It grows larger every year with only the investment of a little time and labor during those months when farmers are least busy.

It pays a good hourly wage up to $2.00 per hour on some jobs.

It has a constant cash value. An initial investment in a farm woods together with the investment of a little off-season time and labor is all that is needed. A farm woods account grows forever. Of course there are certain

DON'TS too.

Don't clear cut a farm woods and expect to get an increasing value of the woodland.

After all a person who draws the principal out of his commercial bank account can't expect as much interest out of the balance that remains. And if he draws it all out the account is closed.

Don't carelessly allow forest fires to start. That is like taking a bundle of paper dollars and setting a match to it.

Don't pasture a woods because cows are destructive.

Don't cut carelessly either. Select cutting and thinning of farm woods is like pruning out bad investments.

The don'ts aren't any different than any cautious banker would advise for a depositor. The advantages of having a farm woods make it probably the safest and best bank account in the world.

Soil Conservation Service

"The water that falls on this hillside now will really be 'balled up' because it won't know which way to run when it gets to these terraces," laughed Spencer Bishop, Wildlife Supervisor, Benton.

Scott DeMeyer and I helped Bishop survey and build three terraces on a hill out at Camp Currie last week. They were built on an area which Bishop plans to use for projects to be worked by the camp this summer.

The broom sedge was so thick and tall that all I could see of Scott as he walked thru it was the top of his hat. This growth died into the top two inches of soil will also help to control erosion and improve the soil.

$1,000 in prizes and a free trip to Louisville for grand prize winners of the 1950 Tom Wallace Soil and Water, Forest and Wildlife Conservation Award.

You can now get your entry blank at the Marshall County Soil Conservation District Office. Every farmer who is co-operating with the district is eligible to enter the contest.

Only two things are required to win this contest: (1) Use of land according to its capability and (2) Application of soil conservation practices according to the needs of the land.

Marshall Freeman, Unity Church Community, realizes the benefits to be gained from contour farming enough to practice it on the other man's farm. Freeman is planting on the contour with terraces on Halley Johnson's farm.

Governor Tells of Modern Hotel At Park

Plans for the erection of a 10 new vacation cottages, a bath house and beach and a concession building are under construction," the commissioner added.

The announcement was made at a dinner at which Western Kentucky newspapermen and directors of the Kentucky Lake Association were in attendance.

In addition to discussing the new hotel, Commissioner Ward reviewed steps by the state during the past two years in the development of the two state parks on Kentucky Lake—Kentucky Dam Village at Gilbertsville, and Kentucky Lake State Park, 20 miles up the lake at the site of Eggnor's Ferry bridge.

At the latter park, construction has included a modern bath house and beach enclosure, rest rooms, large picnic shelter, remodeling of the boat dock, building a superintendent's home, caretaker's house, the 15 vacation cottages, landscaping of the grounds, water and electric systems.

"At Kentucky Dam Village, 10 new vacation cottages, a bath house and beach and a concession building are under construction," the commissioner added.

A new kitchen is nearing completion, and the dining room will be enlarged. New quarters have been given to the post office, making more space for the grocery store and coffee shop at the park.

The auditorium is being completely remodeled into a combination lounge and recreation hall.

"The state soon will let a $45,000 contract for the erection of an administration building and other improvements at the Kentucky Dam Village airport," Ward added. "Both the Kentucky Department of Aeronautics and the Federal government are cooperating in sponsoring this project," he said.

"The work at these two parks is merely a part of the statewide program for the development of an outstanding system of parks," Ward declared.

Fisherman Drowns In Lake Sunday

The drowning early Sunday morning of Henry T. Clower, 44 year old Madisonville man, brought the total for this season on to four in Kentucky Lake. Clower, one of a fishing party, had last been seen by his 14 year old daughter, Pauline. It was thought by authorities that he had wandered off alone from his party's camp above Kentucky Dam and fell off a loadin' barge.

A TVA safety service dragging party recovered the body several hours after he was missed.

A Grand Rivers coroner's jury ruled that Clower "died by drowning accidentally falling into the lake while asleep."

The total number of drownings in Kentucky Lake above and just below the dam last year was 13.

THAT STUMP means a forest harvest has been taken from this land.

Those young trees mean something more important... a new forest harvest is growing!

The danger sign warns us that this new crop can't grow if it is destroyed by fire. Fire and growing forests don't mix. Since human carelessness is the greatest cause of fire in the woods, we can prevent most fires before they start. Do your part! Never play with fire in the woods.

Boy Scouts To Have Fish Fry Sunday

The Happy District, Boy Scouts of America, of which Marshall County is a part, will celebrate its great growth with a fish fry in Marshall County Sunday, June 4.

The district had almost doubled in membership strength in the past year, it was reported. Every member of the district and their families are invited to attend and participate in the celebration.

Activities will begin at 2 p. m. and the event will be staged at Kentucky Lake Park. The program will include a fish fry, a raffle, a quiz, a singing contest, a dance, and a variety show. The fish fry will be served by the local restaurants and the raffle will be conducted by the district leaders. The quiz will be on Boy Scout facts and the singing contest will be for the best song sung by a Scout or Scoutmaster. The dance will be held at the park and the variety show will be presented by the district members.

Whooping Cough

Vaccination against whooping cough is free to all people of Marshall County at the Health department, that department announced today.

A total of 282 immunizations were given during 1949 against this communicable disease, the report.

Early spring statistics show it is the season of the year when the highest incidence of whooping cough occurs.

It is one of the seriousness of whooping cough that it is necessary to note that in 1948 a total of 38 persons in Kentucky died of the disease. This represents a reduction in fatalities but the disease still constitutes a very real public health problem in the state.

It is especially dangerous for children under three years of age, infants in particular, and parents should see their private physician and follow his advice, the county department said.

Mr. Max Rayden of route 3 and his brother J. Edgar Brown of Golden Pond have just returned from Chicago, where they visited a sister, Mrs. Estie Brown Arendt who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rickman have had visitors from Reindland the past two weeks. His wife and nephew Sandra Jean and Marvin Earl Ramage.

Cherry Grove:

By Etta Bowden

Cherry Grove folks are planning their Big Singing trolley event.

It's berry pickin' time in the Grove and all of its berry pickers are counting the days 'til they cash their first checks. We already have nice jammed berries on our shelves. Thanks, last week, our friend, Gabriel Henderson of Hardin Route 1, tells this series he went fishing with a Texas bunch, another day he went with a bunch from Chicago, and the day I saw him he had been with a bunch from Paducah and the fish they had caught had really piled in. Then he told me about the time he went to the fair and saw the big fish and the big crowd and the big money.

Our Saturday night company consisted of Wide Awake's daughter, Mrs. Grace Cavender, of Duketown, and the one and only son, Mrs. Gertrude Smith of Route 1. Our congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence York of Benton's new son, Dora Washburn who is in the Mayfield hospital for treatment. Congratulations to the graduates of our county, now we older ones leave off, you younger ones will take over, and how able and different you are how proud we are of you.

SCHOOL of CRIME

Crime in America has long since passed the stage where its most dangerous aspects were those relating to the individual criminal or to small groups of criminal associates. It has become an organized business—big business—grossing many millions of dollars annually and covering a wide range of lawlessness from petty theft to kidnaping, murder, and treason.

Criminal organizations, like other businesses, require working personnel—trained operatives—and it draws these from the ranks of shiftless youths, neglected boys and girls, street loafers, and the moral derelicts found in every community. Under the tutelage of older criminals, they are trained in the techniques of crime and soon become experts in some particular line.

Last year 734,041 youths of both sexes—many of them from supposed good homes—were drawn into this great American school of crime and started on criminal careers. Of this number, 6,571 were involved in killings; 21,509 in robberies; 58,094 in assaults; 38,128 in burglaries; 64,213 in larceny; 18,294 in automobile thefts; 37,332 in sex offenses—and so on to the dismal total quoted above.

There is no single answer to the juvenile delinquency problem, because there are so many contributing factors to be reckoned with. Its worst phases could be wiped out, however, through an aroused parenthood, better home conditions, better training in religion and spiritual living, more stress on morals in the public schools, and more adequate community recreational facilities for boys and girls.

The churches of America are striving to stem this tide of disaster and save boys and girls from the pitfalls of delinquency. They stand ready to cooperate with parents, civic groups, and communities in combating those influences which lead young people astray. Relatively few youthful criminals come from homes where the influence of the Church is dominant.

Talk to the leaders of your Church. Enlist today in the battle to save American childhood and youth from the perils that beset them in these dark times.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in each of the building of character and good citizenship. It is a source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his aid and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

County Budget Commission At Work

The Marshall County Budget Commission is now at work on the county budget for the fiscal year 1950-51. This is the budget which will control expenditures of the county general fund and road fund from July 1, 1950 until June 30, 1951.

County Judge Leonard Jones and County Attorney H. H. Lovett, Jr., are members of the budget commission by virtue of their office. The third member of the local commission, appointed by the fiscal court, is Duke Nichols.

The law requires that the county budget commission shall make a detailed investigation of each separate county funds are to be expended by the fiscal court. The commission estimates funds needed for each purpose and the anticipated revenue. Not less than twenty days before the time for adoption of the budget, the county judge sends two copies to the State Local Finance Officer for his approval as to form and classification.

Uncle Sam Says

Political independence, our "Declaration of Independence," was proclaimed to a young and vigorous nation on July 4, 1776, when citizens were summoned to Independence Hall in Philadelphia by the stentorian tones of the historic Liberty Bell. The actual tone of the Liberty Bell will again be heard throughout the nation during the U. S. Savings Bonds "Independence Drive" May 15-July 4. This time it will peal forth a message of financial independence for the individual, a reminder to every citizen of the importance of savings and Savings Bonds. They make you better equipped to face the future, secure in the reality that yours will be a better, more comfortable future.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his aid and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday... Proverbs 23:3-6

Monday... Ecclesiastes 7:1-6

Tuesday... Acts 21:1-5

Wednesday... Luke 9:19-62

Thursday... 11 Thessalonians 2:13-17

Friday... James 1:19-27

Saturday... Psalm 51:1-7

If you desire a schedule of readings for the year write to American Bible Society, Dept. U, 450 Park Ave., N. Y. 22, N. Y.
